

HOSTILE
ENVIRONMENT
AWARENESS
TRAINING-HEAT

This training is specially designed for people working in unstable or high-risk surroundings. It aims to offer crucial tools for hostile environment awareness, the means to better understand triggers for stress-induced behavior and acquire the necessary skills to develop action-steps to address immediate threats using a proven methodology of planning, reflection and implementation in complex settings.

Official
Certificates
validated by EFR
and C-TECC

TRAINING SCHEDULE

Personnel Security

- Awareness of threats, associated risks, and personal security: in hotels, in town compound, Protection of sensitive and classified information
- Convoy safety measures
- Threats management and immediate reactions to : Car accident, terrorist attack, active shooter, bombing, ambush, demonstrations and riots
- Managing Stress
- Map reading and GPS navigation
- Means of communication and communication procedures

Landmines, explosives remnants of war and IED safety

- Weapons, mines, improvised explosive devices, and unexploded ordnance

Basic life support in remote areas

- Basic life support in difficult field environments
- First and Secondary care

Convoy safety and off-road driving

- Convoy safety and security procedures
- Journey planning
- Convoy driving technique
- Characteristics and capabilities of 4x4 vehicles

Scenarios

- Kidnapping, hostage taking and hostage survival
- Team under attack

Trusted by

